

PricewaterhouseCoopers Australia

Global Human Rights Policy – Addendum (Australia)

May 2025

PwC Australia has adopted the Networks Global Human Rights Policy. This addendum includes a supplementary statement that outlines our commitment to the rights of indigenous peoples, aligned to the with the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

Addendum

We are committed to respecting the rights of Indigenous Peoples as aligned to the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. We are committed to operating in a manner that is consistent with a rights based principled approach which supports:

1. Indigenous peoples self-determination
2. Indigenous peoples participation in decision-making
3. Indigenous peoples right to be free from any kind of discrimination
4. Respect for and protection of Indigenous peoples culture

©2025 PricewaterhouseCoopers. All rights reserved. PwC refers to the Australian member firm, and may sometimes refer to the PwC network. Each member firm is a separate legal entity. Please see www.pwc.com/structure for further details. This content is for general information purposes only, and should not be used as a substitute for consultation with professional advisors. Liability limited by a scheme approved under Professional Standards Legislation.

At PwC Australia, our purpose is to build trust in society and solve important problems. PwC is a network of firms in 149 countries with more than 370,000 people who are committed to delivering quality in assurance, advisory and tax services. Find out more and tell us what matters to you by visiting us at www.pwc.com.au