Creditor Rights in Liquidations

As a creditor, you have rights to request meetings and information or take certain actions:

Right to request a meeting

In liquidations, no meetings of creditors are held automatically. However, creditors with claims of a certain value can request in writing that the liquidator hold a meeting of creditors.

A meeting may be requested in the first 20 business days in a creditors' voluntary liquidation by $\geq 5\%$ of the value of the debts held by known creditors who are not a related entity of the company.

Otherwise, meetings can be requested at any other time or in a court liquidation by:

- $> 10\%$ but $< 25\%$ of the known value of creditors on the condition that those creditors provide security for the cost of holding the meeting
- $\geq 25\%$ of the known value of creditors
- creditors by resolution, or
- a Committee of Inspection (this is a smaller group of creditors elected by, and to represent, all the creditors).

If a request complies with these requirements and is 'reasonable', the liquidator must hold a meeting of creditors as soon as reasonably practicable.

Right to request information

Liquidators will communicate important information with creditors as required in a liquidation. In addition to the initial notice, you should receive, at a minimum, a report within the first three months on the likelihood of a dividend being paid.

Additionally, creditors have the right to request information at any time. A liquidator must provide a creditor with the requested information if their request is 'reasonable', the information is relevant to the liquidation, and the provision of the information would not cause the liquidator to breach their duties.

A liquidator must provide this information to a creditor within 5 business days of receiving the request, unless a longer period is agreed. If, due to the nature of the information requested, the liquidator requires more time to comply with the request, they can extend the period by notifying the creditor in writing.

Requests must be reasonable.

They are not reasonable if:

Both meetings and information:

- (a) complying with the request would prejudice the interests of one or more creditors or a third party
- (b) there is not sufficient available property to comply with the request
- (c) the request is vexatious

Meeting requests only:

- (d) a meeting of creditors dealing with the same matters has been held, or will be held within 15 business days

Information requests only:

- (e) the information requested would be privileged from production in legal proceedings
- (f) disclosure would found an action for breach of confidence
- (g) the information has already been provided
- (h) the information is required to be provided under law within 20 business days of the request

If a request is not reasonable due to (b), (d), (g) or (h) above, the liquidator must comply with the request if the creditor meets the cost of complying with the request.

Otherwise, a liquidator must inform a creditor if their meeting or information request is not reasonable and the reason why.

Specific queries about the liquidation should be directed to the liquidator's office.

Right to give directions to liquidator

Creditors, by resolution, may give a liquidator directions in relation to a liquidation. A liquidator must have regard to these directions, but is not required to comply with the directions.

If a liquidator chooses not to comply with a direction given by a resolution of the creditors, they must document their reasons.

An individual creditor cannot provide a direction to a liquidator.

Right to appoint a reviewing liquidator

Creditors, by resolution, may appoint a reviewing liquidator to review a liquidator's remuneration or a cost or expense incurred in a liquidation. The review is limited to:

- remuneration approved within the six months prior to the appointment of the reviewing liquidator, and
- expenses incurred in the 12 months prior to the appointment of the reviewing liquidator.

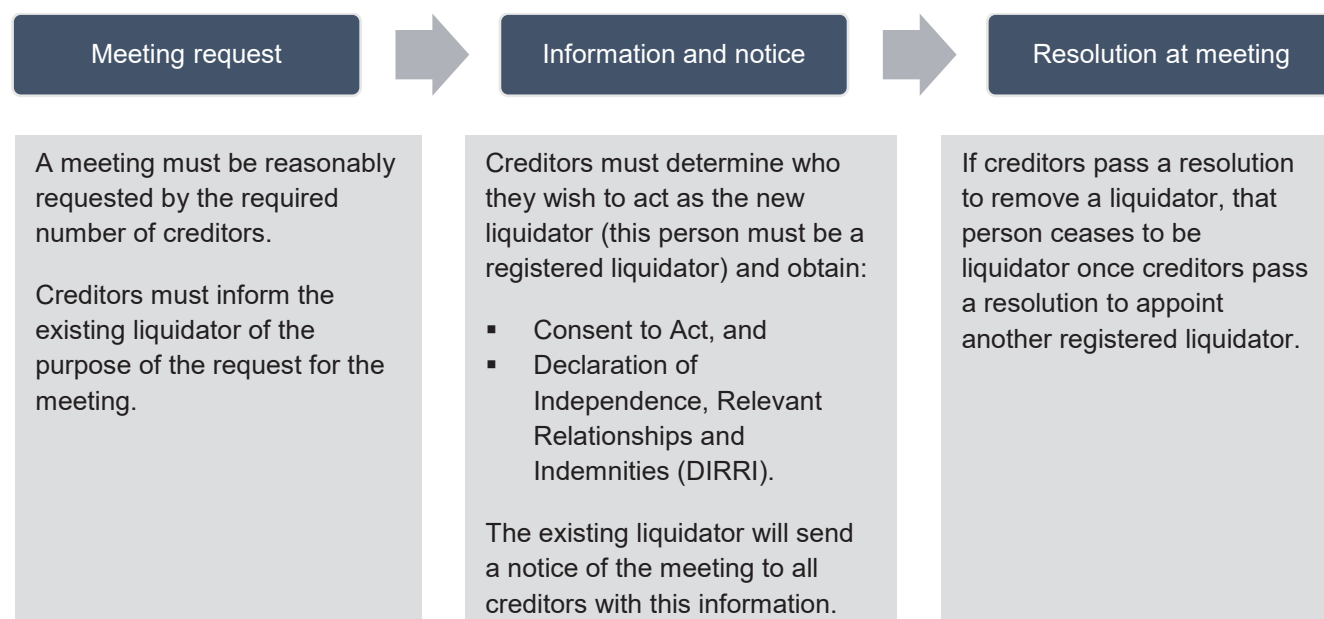

The cost of the reviewing liquidator is paid from the assets of the liquidation, in priority to creditor claims.

An individual creditor can appoint a reviewing liquidator with the liquidator's consent, however the cost of this reviewing liquidator must be met personally by the creditor making the appointment.

Right to replace liquidator

Creditors, by resolution, have the right to remove a liquidator and appoint another registered liquidator.

For this to happen, there are certain requirements that must be complied with:

For more information, go to www.arita.com.au/creditors.
Specific queries about the liquidation should be directed to the liquidator's office.

Initial Remuneration Notice

Co Info Pty Ltd
ACN 165 442 026
(In Liquidation) (the Company)

The purpose of the Initial Remuneration Notice is to provide you with information about how we propose our remuneration for undertaking the liquidation will be set.

A Remuneration Method

There are four basic methods that can be used to calculate the remuneration charged by an insolvency practitioner. They are:

1. Time based / hourly rates

This is the most common method. The total fee charged is based on the hourly rate charged for each person who carried out the work, multiplied by the number of hours spent by each person on each of the tasks performed.

2. Fixed Fee

The total fee charged is normally quoted at the commencement of the liquidation and is the total cost for the liquidation. Sometimes a practitioner will finalise an liquidation for a fixed fee.

3. Percentage

The total fee charged is based on a percentage of a particular variable, such as the gross proceeds of assets realisations.

4. Contingency

The practitioner's fee is structured to be contingent on a particular outcome being achieved.

B Method chosen

Given the nature of this liquidation we propose that our remuneration as Liquidators be calculated on Hourly Rates. This is because:

- it ensures that creditors are only charged for work that is performed
- as Liquidators, we are required to perform a number of tasks which do not necessarily relate to the realisation of assets, for example responding to creditor enquiries, reporting to ASIC and conducting investigations
- generally, it is difficult to estimate with accuracy the total amount of fees necessary to complete all tasks required in the liquidation and
- our firm has a time recording system that can produce a detailed analysis of time spent on each type of task by each individual staff member utilised in the liquidation

C Explanation of Hourly Rates

The rates for our remuneration calculation are set out in the following table together with a general guide showing the qualifications and experience of staff engaged in liquidation and the role they take in the liquidation. The hourly rates charged encompass the total cost of providing professional services and should not be compared to an hourly wage. Time is charged in 6 minute increments.

The hourly rates set out in this schedule are exclusive of GST and do not include disbursements. Remuneration is approved by a resolution of the creditors, a creditors' committee or a court.

Future remuneration is approved subject to a maximum or cap. Sometimes the actual cost of the liquidation will exceed the maximum which has been approved, in which case, we may seek another resolution for additional remuneration. We will not pay any amount exceeding the maximum without this approval.

Where funds are available, we will usually pay approved remuneration at intervals not less than one month. Where funds are not available, remuneration will not be paid.

D Estimate of Remuneration

We estimate that the liquidation will cost approximately up to $250,000.00 (exclusive of GST) to complete.

E Disbursements

Disbursements are divided into three types:

- Externally provided professional services – these are recovered at cost. An example of an externally provided professional service disbursement is legal fees.
- Externally provided non-professional costs – these are recovered at cost. Examples of externally provided professional service disbursements are travel, accommodation, search fees, lodgement fees, storage, outsourced printing and photocopying services.
- Internal disbursements such as photocopying, printing and postage. These disbursements, if charged to the Liquidation, would generally be charged at cost; though some expenses such as telephone calls, photocopying and printing may be charged at a rate which recoups both variable and fixed costs. The recovery of these costs must be on a reasonable commercial basis.

We are not required to seek creditor approval for disbursements paid to third parties but must account to creditors. We must be satisfied that these disbursements are appropriate, justified and reasonable.

We are required to obtain creditor approval for the payment of internal disbursements where there is a profit or advantage prior to these disbursements being paid from the liquidation. Creditors will be asked to approve our internal disbursements prior to these disbursements being paid from the liquidation.

Details of the basis of recovering disbursements in this liquidation are provided below. Full details of any actual costs incurred will be provided with future reporting.
