

PwC's Innovation Network for Large Organisations

Learn Global Best Practices

On 1 September 2017, PwC will be launching its annual innovation capability network and we are extending invitation to a selected number of organisations across different industries. Places are limited to 15 organisations.

Join with a one year commitment for a one off payment of $25,000 (excluding GST) or $2500 per month.

What you get

Innovation think tank events

Access quarterly events for up to 3 staff to connect with other innovation managers in the ecosystem.

Innovation assessment

Get a personalised annual consultation based on an assessment of your organisation's innovation capability using our global innovation benchmark. For more information go to: <https://www.strategyand.pwc.com/innovation1000>

Innovation strategy workshop

Annual training and strategy workshop for leaders and managers of innovation in your organisation (up to 10 attendees).

Post an Innovation challenge

List a challenge through our innovation platform. This allows you to obtain possible solutions from your organisation's internal stakeholders or from external organisations including from our community of research organisations, universities and startups. For more information visit: <https://openinnovation.com.au>

Innovation recognition

Award ceremony and celebration for organisations participating in the Innovation benchmarking.

What is the Innovation Network?

Learn about innovation, the impact of new technologies and what leading organisations are doing to build and measure innovation performance.

Generate new value and unlock innovation capabilities from within and external to your organisation.

Share experiences with other innovative organisations in different sectors and learn from each other, as well as benefit from insights from PwC's global network.

Need support to incubate or accelerate ideas?

We can work with you through the execution phase to design and/or help deliver a program to incubate or accelerate ideas.
